Collection Overview

Biographical Information:

Janice Webster Brown, daughter of Mary (Manning) Webster (1919-2007) and Berwin “Webby” Webster (-1981) is a Manchester, New Hampshire, native. Her mother and grandparents also grew up and lived in Manchester. Her grandmother and her father passed along their love of history and she shares this love through a blog called, “Cow Hampshire: New Hampshire’s History Blog.” This blog earned the 2007 Editor’s Choice “Best of New Hampshire Award” for “Best History Blog” and new posts continue to be added (2023).

Collection Scope and Content Note:

This collection is made up books, ephemera, photographs, postcards, objects and other materials that helped to tell the stories on the “Cow Hampshire: New Hampshire’s History Blog” by Janice Webster Brown. This blog began in 2006 and continues today (2023) and covers New Hampshire history including information on individual people, businesses, organizations, places, and events. This broad collection of materials range from 1861-2008. These dates reflect the dates of the materials within the collection such as the photographs, ephemera, postcards, scrapbooks and not the dates of the accompanying materials within this collection which include receipts, certificates of authenticity, ancestry information, and printed Cow Hampshire blog articles. Though many names/organizations are listed in this finding aid, it is not an exhaustive list.

Arrangement:

The Janice Webster Brown Collection is organized into the following series:

Contents List

Series 1. Postcards, 1900-2018, undated

Extent: 2 boxes and 2 folders

Scope and Content: Series 1 consists of postcards, their accompanying receipts, and some Cow Hampshire Blog information. There are over 1,200 postcards divided into over 200 subjects by subject matter and size. Subject matter was determined by the creator, Janice Webster Brown. The bulk of the subjects are towns, but also included are specific people, businesses, locations, wars, and general subjects such as “hotels and houses” and “water.” There are some duplicates in the subjects. For example, there is a folder for “Lake Sunapee,” as well as a folder for “Sunapee and Lake Sunapee.” The subjects are arranged alphabetically with oversized postcards (ten postcards and two postcard albums) in one folder are the end of this series. Although some postcards are dated from 1900 to 2004, many are blank and undated. The receipts date from 2012 to 2018.

Series 2. Photographs, 1861-2018, undated

Extent: 88 Folders

Scope and Content: Series 2 consists of various types of photographs along with their accompanying receipts, Cow Blog information and/or articles, certificates of authenticity, as well as some ancestry information. They are all labeled as indicated by the donor and have been divided into three subseries: People, Places, and Subjects.

Subseries 2.1. People, 1861-1978, 2014-2018, undated

Extent: 50 folders

Scope and Content: This subseries consists mostly of named people, though not all are dated. Some are of individuals; these (in the first 6 folders of the series) are alphabetized together in folders and are followed by folders containing more than one image of the same person or family, as named and organized by the donor. There are also images of prominent non-New Hampshire people, such as Theodore Roosevelt, and a few engravings of Revolutionary War generals, such as John Stark. There are a few small photographs albums. All notes from the donor have been transcribed to their acid-free envelopes. Note that there are also named people found in the "Manchester, NH, schools and students" folders in the "Places" subseries. A single photograph album of the Cilley family is at the end of this series.

Volume 1 Cilley family photograph album, undated

Subseries 2.2. Places, 1888-2000s, undated

Extent: 25 folders

Scope and Content: These photographs are arranged alphabetically by place name as labeled by the donor. Some are of individual locations (Bensons Animal Farm) and some of towns or features (lakes, etc.). The category “Manchester schools and students” contains images of individual identified students. There is also a scrapbook in this category that is the “yearbook” of the Manchester’s Chandler School’s 8th grade class of 1949. It, too, contains images of individual students and teachers, as well as text. There are two albums of scenery. See also the ‘Separated Materials’ section for oversized photographs.
